

SSFE 2012

First announcement and call for papers

We invite all interested researchers to participate in the meeting and to submit abstracts for papers to be presented.

The aim of this international conference is to present current research, exchange ideas and promote collaboration between researchers in forest economics.

The society is organised around four working groups:

1. Business Economics of Forestry & Forest Management and Planning
2. Forest Policy
3. Forest Industry & Forest Products Markets
4. International Forestry

Parallel sessions will be organised according to these working groups. In addition there will be plenary sessions with distinguished keynote speakers.

Post-graduate students presenting a paper are eligible for free accommodation and travel support.
